SkillMarket architecture

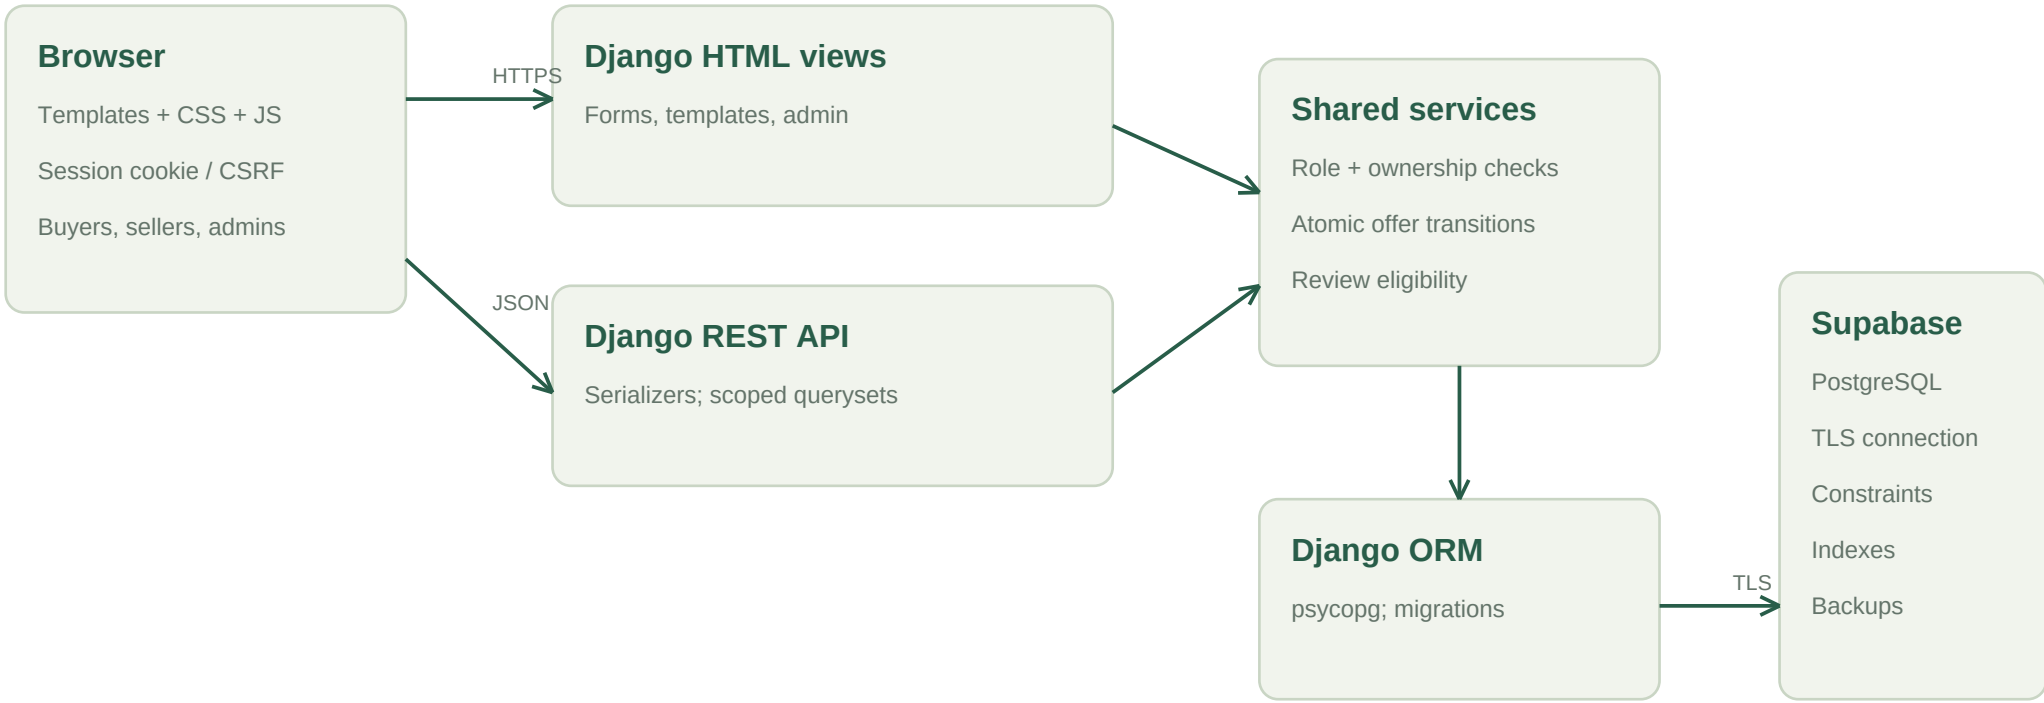
Django monolith with separate browser and PostgreSQL deployment boundaries



App host: HTTPS reverse proxy -> Gunicorn -> Django. WhiteNoise serves compiled assets. Session and CSRF middleware protect both interfaces.

External integration: PostgreSQL only at runtime. GitHub, Lucidchart and Drive are engineering/submission tools. No payment or email provider.

A monolith keeps auth, deployment and transactions in one place. Larger deployments may scale app instances without splitting the domain into microservices.